

Puneet Bansal, ex-BMR Partner, starts boutique law firm 'Nitya Tax Associates'

Date : June 18 2015

Puneet Bansal, a Delhi based Indirect tax Partner with BMR & Associates LLP, has started his own boutique law firm 'Nitya Tax Associates'. The firm will provide services in the field of indirect taxation and allied laws including advisory, litigation, advocacy etc. Before joining BMR in 2012, Puneet was a Partner with Lakshmikumaran & Sridharan where he worked for over 9 years in their litigation and advisory practice. He is joined by Kulraj Ashpnani who last worked as an Associate Director with BMR.

"'Nitya', as it means in Sanskrit, stands for 'continuity' / 'eternity', so is our undeterred and continuing commitment to provide solutions to our clients with a deep understanding of their business. We aim to partner with our clients and assist them in effective tax risk management and dispute resolution." shared Puneet.

"The firm is making a humble beginning with our first office in Delhi with a team size of 8 professionals. We intend to cater to our clients on pan India basis.", said Puneet.
