STATUTORY UPDATES

1. Revised checklist for filing application before DGTR

In suppression of Trade Notice 15 of 2018, DGTR has prescribed revised checklist for submission of anti-dumping duty and countervailing duty applications for initiation of investigation.

Key changes include:

- E-Filing permitted along with dedicated email address
- Deficiencies to be rectified within 5 days from the date of receipt of deficiency notice
- Period of Investigation should not be older than 4 months from the date of application
- Supporter of the application required to provide basic information such as installed capacity, production quantity, sales etc.
- Applicant should provide documents in support of capacity claimed, project report (in case of new industry), etc. as submitted to Government agency

Trade Notice No. 04/2021 dated June 16, 2021

NITYA Comments: The revised checklist consolidates changes made earlier vide earlier trade notices, which will help applicants refer to single consolidated check-list of requirements.
